Christina Behrman is a partner in the firm's Labor and Employment group. She joined the firm as an associate in 2019. Christina advises and represents employers in a broad range of employment law matters including discrimination and harassment, retaliation and wrongful termination, leaves of absence and disability accommodations. She also has experience in wage and hour class actions arising under California law, including under the California Labor Code and the Private Attorneys General Act.

Prior to joining Mullen & Henzell, Christina worked at a large law firm in Los Angeles representing a diverse mix of employers in labor and employment litigation matters.

While earning her law degree at UCLA, Christina served as an editor for the UCLA Law Review and worked as an extern for the U.S. Attorney's Office Civil Division. She also served as a judicial Extern to the Honorable Cathy Ann Bencivengo in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California.

In her spare time, Christina enjoys hiking, reading, and traveling.
